++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear and dry overnight and into Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:

A dry night with long clear spells, especially to the west, and light winds. The chance for some patchy mist and fog forming in prone spots across southwest Wales. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Monday:

A clear and dry day with the odd passing cloud, but otherwise plenty of warm sunshine. Feeling slightly warmer than on Sunday. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:

Dry with sunny spells on Tuesday after fog patches have cleared. Turning breezy on Wednesday as rain crosses the country. Remaining unsettled on Thursday with further showery outbreaks.
